YOUR REGISTRATION IS SUCCESSFUL

IMPORTANT:

- Type of Tickets :
- Registration and Ticketing Process: After successful registration, a unique Booking ID will be generated for each individual trekker. This Booking ID will be validated, and upon successful payment, a ticket will be issued. Without Booking ID trekking is not allowed.
- Individual Registrations Only: Registrations made in the name of organizations, private firms, homestays, tour operators, or any third parties are not permitted. Such registrations will be automatically cancelled
- Identification Requirement: Trek participants must submit valid ID cards (e.g., Aadhaar Card, Voter ID, Driving Licence) at the trek checking point for verification purposes.
- Guide Requirement: It is mandatory for trekkers to hire a guide. One guide is required for every group of 10 persons
- Health and Safety: Trekkers are responsible for ensuring their own health and safety during the trek. It is recommended to undergo necessary medical check-ups and carry adequate supplies, including water, food, and first aid kits.
- Environmental Responsibility: Trekkers must adhere to Leave No Plastic and other waste following all the guidelines for waste disposal and conservation of the natural environment.

Cancellation:

- If a registered trekker is unable to participate in the trek, they must cancel their reservation prior to the scheduled trekking date.
- Failure to cancel a reservation and not attending the trek without prior notice will result in disciplinary action. The individual will be banned from participating in future trekking activities organized by the authority.

Disclaimer:

- Participation in trekking activities involves inherent risks, including but not limited to physical exertion, unpredictable weather conditions, and natural hazards. Trekkers are advised to assess their own capabilities and take necessary precautions
- Authority’s Decision: The trekking authority reserves the right to refuse entry or participation to any individual or group deemed unfit or unprepared for the trek. Decisions made by the trekking authority regarding safety and compliance must be followed without dispute
